

Flushing Community Church
May 29, 2016

Pastor Mike DeVuyst

What was a significant moment in your life when you felt accepted?

How do you connect with Leah's story (Gen 29:15-25)?

Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you so that God will be given glory (Rom 15:7, NLT)

proslambano:

What does it mean to you that Christ accepts you in this way?

Consider these questions for reflection...

>Is there someone in your life you would love to have accept you?
Without any qualifications, who do you yearn to know
approves of you just the way you are?

>What in your mind is the greatest obstacle to God's acceptance of you? What does the gospel have to say about that?

Listen to sermons and connect online at flushingcommunity.org

Flushing Community Church
May 29, 2016

Pastor Mike DeVuyst

What was a significant moment in your life when you felt accepted?

How do you connect with Leah's story (Gen 29:15-25)?

*Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you
so that God will be given glory (Rom 15:7, NLT)*

proslambano:

What does it mean to you that Christ accepts you in this way?

Consider these questions for reflection...

>Is there someone in your life you would love to have accept you?
Without any qualifications, who do you yearn to know
approves of you just the way you are?

>What in your mind is the greatest obstacle to God's acceptance of you? What does the gospel have to say about that?

Listen to sermons and connect online at flushingcommunity.org

Flushing Community Church
May 29, 2016

Pastor Mike DeVuyst

What was a significant moment in your life when you felt accepted?

How do you connect with Leah's story (Gen 29:15-25)?

*Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you
so that God will be given glory (Rom 15:7, NLT)*

proslambano:

What does it mean to you that Christ accepts you in this way?

Consider these questions for reflection...

>Is there someone in your life you would love to have accept you?
Without any qualifications, who do you yearn to know
approves of you just the way you are?

>What in your mind is the greatest obstacle to God's acceptance of you? What does the gospel have to say about that?

Listen to sermons and connect online at flushingcommunity.org