

Jesus said, “Come, follow me.” But how we follow him isn’t limited to a single, universal approach. As God has created each of us uniquely, so too we draw close to him in unique expressions of our faith. Join us for this one day spiritual formation event as we seek to experience God’s presence in a variety of ways by taking up the call to follow him.

Dinner will be provided.

This event is designed for teens and adults. Due to the length of the event, we are allowing parents of younger children to arrange their own childcare in the way that best meets their needs.
