The degree of our hunger is linked directly to how desperately we want to be filled.

To be filled,
you first must become emptied!

I denied myself nothing my eyes desired;
I refused my heart no pleasure. My heart took delight in all my work, and this was the reward for all my labor.

Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind;

nothing was gained under the sun.

What does God want to fill us with?

His very own presence!

Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord – Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here – has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

CHRIS SLIGH
RUNNING BACK TO YOU

Appetites!

I've had just enough of the spotlight
when it burns bright
To see how it gets in the blood
And I've tasted my share of the sweet life and wild ride
And found a little is not quite enough

I know how I can stray
And how fast my heart could change
Empty me of the selfishness inside
Every vain ambition
and the poison of my pride
Any foolish thing my heart holds to

A man is holding a large, multi-layered burger in front of his face. In the background, a rabbit is visible, appearing to be in motion or looking towards the man. The scene is set against a dark, blurred background.

Lord, empty me of me so I can be filled with You.

I've seen just enough of the quick buys of the best lies
To know how prodigals
can be drawn away
I know how I can stray
And how fast my heart could change

compared to you, compared to you Cause everything is a lesser thing,
compared to you,
so I surrender.
