Looking for additional Life Apps ...

Monday, February 20, 2012 :: The Breaker App

Read: Exodus 23:20-33

Think about this ... God is preparing His people to enter into the land He has for them. The deal is that they cannot become comfortable with the gods of this new land ... to the point that God commands them to break their sacred places down. Sometimes, we think we can “manage” our sin but God calls us to break it into pieces and deal with it severely.

Download: “Break Out” - this game challenges you to break out of prison using dynamite, secret passages and locked doors. (free)

Tuesday, February 21, 2012 :: The Renew App

Read: Lamentations 5

Think about this ... Lamentations is a book of sadness and bitterness. This chapter reveals the desperate situation God’s people find themselves in. Hard labor, suicide, depression, rape, lack of respect and honor ... they are struggling. The lament ends with a strong call to the Lord for Him to renew His people. That freedom and hope comes from God alone!!

Wednesday, February 22, 2012 :: The Guard App

Read: Proverbs 4

Think about this ... Solomon gives advice from his amazing knowledge in the book of Proverbs. This chapter challenges us to hold on to wisdom and guard ourselves against evil. In order to remain free, we must guard our heart, soul and tongue against the snares that are around us. How do you need to guard yourself? And from what? Remain free today!!

Thursday, February 23, 2012 :: The SunShine App

Read: Psalm 31

Think about this ... A picture of freedom is the ability to allow the sun to shine on us. That same picture was a great sign of forgiveness for the Israelites. Verse 16 speaks of the very face of God shining on us. If we allow sin to rule our life, this cannot happen. But when we run toward freedom and forgiveness, His face will shine us!

Download: Search for a “sunshine wallpaper” and pick your favorite one. Allow the sun to shine on you and your device!

Friday, February 24, 2012 :: The Laughter App
