Read: Genesis 22

Think about this ... This is one of my favorite stories in the Old Testament. To see how Abraham was so committed to obedience toward God that he was willing to do this is amazing. We might think it's completely insane but for this culture, sacrificing children was not entirely unheard of. Still, the promise of God was for a mighty nation—not killing your only son. Abraham proved that he trusted God above all.

Read: 1 Samuel 15:10-35

Think about this ... When Israel called out for a King, God warned them that they would regret that decision. Sure enough, as soon as God grants their request and anoints Saul to be King, everyone saw what God was talking about. Saul did some stupid stuff and therefore, God rejected him as King and appointed David. When our priorities are not in line with God's there will be issues to deal with.

Think about this ... This book of the Bible is found near the end of the Old Testament. In this brief reading, God reminds us that everything belongs to him. No matter what we have stored up for ourselves, it's all His. This mindset it important for the believer in God to understand at some point along their journey of knowing Him. Think about this ... Mary and Martha was very close sisters. We don't know their age but they were certainly old enough to help out around the house and they were avid followers of Jesus. Their family supported his ministry and they loved Him very much. As Jesus visited their house this day, Mary didn't want to work and prepare the meal while Martha knew her place was in the kitchen. Both had good priorities but only one of them was right. Which one are you?
