Part 3: Blessed are the Hungry

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.”

Matthew 5:6 NIV

What is the greatest appetite (or longing) in your life?

Who best models a life that hungers for more of God to you?
How do they satisfy their craving?

Share your example on our “Blessed Wall” today!

What characterizes a life that hungers & thirsts for God?

Satisfaction in life comes from God to those who _____ knowing God and _____ to be like Him!

Consider this for personal reflection this week ...

- > How would you rate your personal cravings? Do they reflect a life that longs for Christ or things of this world?
- > What is the most challenging craving to let go of? Be honest before God with that struggle and seek His help through His Word.
