Experiencing the Presence of God

A still life image featuring a communion cup and a loaf of bread. The cup, on the left, is made of a dark, textured material and contains a dark liquid. The bread, on the right, is round and has a cross-shaped incision on its top. Both are set against a dark, mottled brown background.

Are there still plagues impacting our lives today?

So Moses said, “This is what the Lord says: ‘About midnight I will go throughout Egypt.
Every firstborn son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, who sits on the throne, to the firstborn son of the female slave, who is at her hand mill, and all the firstborn of the cattle as well. There will be loud wailing throughout Egypt—worse than there has ever been or ever will be again. But among the Israelites ‘Go, you and all the people who follow you!’ After that I will leave.” Then Moses, hot with anger, left Pharaoh.

Death came to every home in Egypt, but the Hebrews offered a substitute.

‘What does this ceremony mean to you?’ then tell them, ‘It is the Passover sacrifice to the Lord, who passed over the homes of the Israelites in Egypt and spared our homes when he struck down the Egyptians.’
