What will this gathering be like?

The first 3 classes will include some brief and helpful instruction on art technique by our instructor (who has a degree in art!) and then we will spend time reading and contemplating several passages of scripture. Our sketch pads will become filled with Godly inspired pieces of art. Then our final classes will focus on one piece we've sketched, and create a more developed final piece of art.

This is an example of what art can look like when it's inspired by scripture! This piece was done by Mike and was inspired by Psalm 1 ... being rooted in the law of God!

DAVID

May 27, 2012 | Pastor Terry Bate

*“Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; Create in me a pure heart, O God,
and renew a steadfast spirit within me.”*

From Psalm 51 (NIV)

How would you characterize David

Childhood?

Before his is King?

During his reign?

How did David let his guard down?

What price did David pay for his sinfulness?

How did David respond? How did this make him stronger?

How can we live more like David?

Miss Something? That's okay!!

Thursday: 05.31.2012

Prayer Focus: The sick and recovering (iPray)

Passage: Psalm 37

Insight: It becomes clear in this Psalm that David no longer places his attention on his ability or strength. His trust is firmly planted in the ways of righteousness.
