Introduction: Why did Paul originally write this letter?

What is the bad news that Paul began his letter with?

Do you identify with struggles of the church listed in Romans 1:29-32?

What is the good news that Paul shared?

What does Paul's understanding of "faith" look like as he writes Romans 3:21-24?

The _____ can only _____ our _____ condition, but the _____ of Jesus offers the _____!

Personal reflection this week ...

> How have you relied on following the rules of Christianity as the source of your faith?

> How does experiencing freedom from the Law offer you hope for your future?

Romans Reading Plan:

We encourage you to take some time each day this week to read Paul's letter.

Monday:

Romans 1

Tuesday:

Romans 2

Wednesday:

Romans 3

Thursday:

Romans 4

Friday:

Romans 1-4 together

Journal your reading:

Find a tablet and begin taking notes as you read each day. Include questions and insights into your personal faith. On Friday's review, see if anything new stands out to you.

Freedom: From the Law

This morning, Pastor Terry begins a new teaching series that is looking at the New Testament book of Romans. The Apostle Paul wrote this book in an effort to help the church understand the importance of the Law in the Christian's life.

The Lord's Supper:

Jesus established this special observance with his disciples. We observe communion nearly every weekend at our 9:30AM worship service and frequently at our 11AM service. The table of our Lord is open for all to receive after prayer and reflection.
