The background of the image is a scenic landscape. It shows a valley with a winding road that curves through green hills. In the distance, a large, light-colored statue of an eagle with its wings spread is visible, perched on a rocky outcrop. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the overall lighting suggests a bright, sunny day. The text is overlaid on this background, centered and written in a bold, black font with a white outline.

“Watch out! Don’t do your good deeds publicly, to be admired by others, for you will lose the reward from your Father in heaven. When you give to someone in need, don’t do as the hypocrites do—blowing trumpets in the synagogues and streets to call attention to their acts of charity!

I tell you the truth, they have received all the reward they will ever get. But when you give to someone in need, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. Give your gifts in private, and your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

“Don’t store up treasures here on earth, where moths eat them and rust destroys them, and where thieves break in and steal. Store your treasures in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal. Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.”

The background of the image is a scenic landscape. It shows a deep valley with a river winding through it, surrounded by lush green trees and vegetation. In the foreground, a large, weathered tree trunk lies horizontally across the lower part of the frame. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the overall lighting suggests a bright, sunny day. The text is overlaid on this background, centered in the upper half of the image.

“That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food and drink, or enough clothes to wear. Isn’t life more than food, and your body more than clothing? Look at the birds. They don’t plant or harvest or store food in barns, for your heavenly Father feeds them.

The background of the image is a scenic landscape. It shows a wide valley with a river winding through it. In the distance, there are mountains under a sky filled with soft, white clouds. A faint rainbow is visible in the sky above the river. The overall tone is peaceful and inspirational.

And aren't you far more valuable to him than they are? Can all your worries add a single moment to your life? "And why worry about your clothing? Look at the lilies of the field and how they grow. They don't work or make their clothing, yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are.

HIGHER

And if God cares so wonderfully for wildflowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith? “So don’t worry about these things, saying, ‘What will we eat? What will we drink? What will we wear?’

HIGHER

These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers, but your heavenly Father already knows all your needs. Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need. “So don’t worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring its own worries. Today’s trouble is enough for today.”

Matthew 6:25-34 NLT

“Don’t fret or worry. Instead of worrying, pray. Let petitions and praises shape your worries into prayers, letting God know your concerns. Before you know it, a sense of God’s wholeness, everything coming together for good, will come and settle you down. It’s wonderful what happens when Christ displaces worry at the center of your life.”
