

>> How can followers of Christ look at “wilderness experiences” differently? [Look at 2 Corinthians 4:16-18]

>> Where does our final temptation take place?

>> What is really at stake?

The temptation to eliminate consequences:

>> Have you ever been tempted to “cut corners” or sin to get ahead or move your agenda forward?

Doing the _____ might not give you what you want - _____ what you want is the _____ of God!

Consider these questions for personal reflection this week ...

> How can I quickly recognize the deceptions in my life?

> How can I more effectively respond to truth in my life?

>> How can followers of Christ look at “wilderness experiences” differently? [Look at 2 Corinthians 4:16-18]

>> Where does our final temptation take place?

>> What is really at stake?

The temptation to eliminate consequences:

>> Have you ever been tempted to “cut corners” or sin to get ahead or move your agenda forward?

Doing the _____ might not give you what you want - _____ what you want is the _____ of God!

Consider these questions for personal reflection this week ...

> How can I quickly recognize the deceptions in my life?

> How can I more effectively respond to truth in my life?

>> How can followers of Christ look at “wilderness experiences” differently? [Look at 2 Corinthians 4:16-18]

>> Where does our final temptation take place?

>> What is really at stake?

The temptation to eliminate consequences:

>> Have you ever been tempted to “cut corners” or sin to get ahead or move your agenda forward?

Doing the _____ might not give you what you want - _____ what you want is the _____ of God!

Consider these questions for personal reflection this week ...

> How can I quickly recognize the deceptions in my life?

> How can I more effectively respond to truth in my life?