FRISCO DEPOT 1956
LOWRY CITY, MO.

Well 'Frisco ain't a mighty long way if you can afford to fly
But it might as well be on the moon
When you're as broke as I

FRISCO DEPOT 1955
BURNHAM, MO.

Here I sit with my head in my hands Just watchin' the trains roll by The Helping Hand Mission man warned me that nights here get cold

FRISCO DEPOT 195
CROCKER, MO.

When you're cold there's nothing as welcome as sunshine

When you're dry, there's nothing as welcome as rain

When you're alone

there's nothing as slow as passin' time

And when you're afoot

there's nothin' as fast as a train

MARIONVILLE, MO.

FRISCO DEPOT COLUMBUS, MISS. 1974

Well 'Friscó's a mighty big city now that aint' no lie

They've got some buildings there that reach a mile into the sky

FRISCO STATION,
FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.

With so many people but no one can stop just to tell me why

In a world full of people

there's so many people alone

When you're alone
life just don't seem worth living And while you're alive you've got to learn to live with your pain

When you've been so gone for so long there's no one that's left for forgiving And you find yourself searching your past for the links to your chain

“Salvation has come to this home today, for this man has shown himself to be a true son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and save those who are lost.”

Jesus, Luke 19:9-10

PL ▶ YLIST

At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another

But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the HOPE of eternal life.

Titus 3:3-7 NIV

Through the grace of God we become something else.
