What do you want to be known for?

If you could only be remembered for one thing, what would it be?

PL ▶ YLIST

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:34-35, ESV

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love,
I am nothing.

If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:1-3, NIV

Anything – Love = Nothing

PL ▶ YLIST

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7, NIV

Love is patient.

Love is kind.

Love does not envy.

Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.

Romans 12:15, ESV

Love does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking.

It is not arrogant or rude.

It does not insist on its own way. (ESV)

Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor.

Romans 12:9-10, ESV

Love does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking.

It is not arrogant or rude.

It does not insist on its own way. (ESV)

Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves.

Philippians 2:3, ESV

Love is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

Ephesians 4:31–32, ESV

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.

We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing.

2 Thessalonians 1:3, ESV

Love always protects.

Love bears all things. (ESV)

Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.

1 Peter 4:8, ESV

Love always trusts, always hopes.

Love believes all things, hopes all things. (ESV)

“...with God all things are possible.”

Matthew 19:26, ESV

PLAYLIST

Love always perseveres.

Love endures all things. (ESV)

For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

2 Corinthians 5:14-15, NIV

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:34-35, ESV

“You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.”

Deuteronomy 6:5, ESV

“...you shall love your neighbor as yourself”

Leviticus 19:18, ESV

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. . . . We love because he first loved us.

1 John 4:7-12, 19, NIV

God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Romans 5:5, ESV

PLAYLIST

Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me.

For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 13:8-13, NIV
