Road Trip part 3: Onesimus's Journey
Pastor Mike DeVuyst | #FCCroadtrip

What does it mean to you to have a partnership ("koinonia") in the faith?
(see Philemon 6)

How does that partnership affect how you see others?

How does Paul's letter to Philemon model the ministry of reconciliation?
(see 2 Corinthians 5:14-21)

"On the cross, Jesus hung with arms outstretched between heaven and earth, making a bridge upwards and downwards between God and the human race, and from side to side between all the warring factions of earth. And Paul has grasped the truth that so many have missed: his achievement of reconciliation is put into effect when his people follow the same pattern. When people allow the cross to shape their own lives, the love of God is set free to change and heal in ways we cannot at the moment even imagine."

-N.T. Wright

Where do you see yourself in this story?

- Are you running from something like Onesimus? Do you need God's good news of forgiveness, restoration, and transformation in your life today?
- Or do you identify yourself in Philemon, faced with the difficult task of extending grace and reconciliation to someone who may be different from you or who has wronged you?
- Where in your world does reconciliation need to happen today? And what stands in the way of you being that minister of reconciliation that your partnership in the gospel calls you to be?

But just as important, we want to see God's journey toward us within those same experiences. Have you taken steps to grow closer to God? Have you felt Him walking closer to you? #FCCroadtrip
