

This week we will be focusing on some Psalms of Thanksgiving. We have a lot to be thankful for even in this time of chaos and isolation. Each day will have an activity to show thanks.

MONDAY- Read Psalm 7

Family Challenge- Write a letter thanking a teacher in your life (even if it's your mom) for all that they do to help you learn. Teachers are learning to teach in new ways right now, homeschool parents are still teaching amidst this chaos and their routines are disrupted a little too.

TUESDAY- Read Psalm 28

Family Challenge- Make a sign to put in your window, door, or yard thanking everyone working in healthcare trying to help people, risking getting sick, and coming home having to separate themselves from the rest of their families. Let's thank them for the hard work they are doing.

WEDNESDAY- Read Psalm 100

Family Challenge- Make a thank you card for your parents. For many of them, staying home is new and just as much of an adjustment for your parents as it is for you kids. Thank them for all they do for you, for loving you, and for being with you in the uncertainties of life today.

THURSDAY- Read Psalm 118

Family Challenge- Pray a prayer of thanks to God for all he has done for you and continues to do for you. Discuss as a family how God has provided for you. Maybe your parents have a story of how God provides that you don't know yet.

Questions to ask with each day's scripture:

What can I learn from today's Psalm?

What did you learn about God from today's Psalm?

What did you learn about thankfulness from today's Psalm?
