John the Baptist Prepares the Way
The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, as it is written in Isaiah the prophet: Behold, I send my messenger before me, who will prepare the way before me: the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, that he may come, and every one shall see his salvation.

John appeared, baptizing in the wilderness, and preaching the forgiveness of sins. He came out to him and confessed their sins. Now John came around his waist and ate locusts and wild figs. He came to him and confessed their sins. Now John came around his waist and ate locusts and wild figs. He came to him and confessed their sins. Now John came around his waist and ate locusts and wild figs. He came to him and confessed their sins.

Introduction
Many have undertaken to write an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, just as they were handed down to us by eyewitnesses and servants of the truth. Since I myself have carefully considered all these things from the beginning, it seemed good to me, since I have carefully considered all these things from the beginning, it seemed good to me, since I have carefully considered all these things from the beginning, it seemed good to me, since I have carefully considered all these things from the beginning, it seemed good to me.

John 1:1
Story of the Word
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The Word was with God at the beginning. Everything came into being through the Word, and without the Word, nothing came into being. What came into being through the Word was life, and the life was the light, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness does not extinguish the light. A man named John was sent to witness the light, so that all who would believe in the light, the light, but his mission concerning the light. The true light that shines in the darkness was coming into the world, and the world came into being through the light, but the world didn't receive him. The light came to his own people, and his own people did not receive him.
